Capability Overview

Organizations have a mission-critical need to be able to calculate effective permissions and effective access on all critical Active Directory content, such as on all administrative (privileged), executive and sensitive domain accounts and groups.

The Gold Finger Active Directory Effective Permissions and Effective Access Calculator was designed to empower organizations to be able to efficiently, cost-effectively and above all trustworthily fulfill this mission-critical need.

The Active Directory Effective Permissions and Effective Access Calculator fully automates the accurate calculation of effective permissions as well as effective access on any Active Directory object. It is simply unique in its ability to do so. The tool also lets IT administrators, auditors, analysts and managers export data for analysis as well as generate reports that can be furnished as evidence to demonstrate regulatory compliance.

Trustworthy Insight

When it comes to your security, accurate, trustworthy insight is paramount, because a single inaccuracy could mean the difference between being secure or vulnerable. At Paramount Defenses, we set the gold standard for trustworthiness.

Gold Finger is architected by none other than former Microsoft Program Manager for Active Directory Security so you have the assurance that it embodies authoritative expertise that you can rely on to deliver accurate, trustworthy insight. It is also 100% built in the United States, developed and tested over almost a decade, by highly proficient, experienced and trustworthy developers, 100% of whom are U.S. citizens, so you know you're running the world's most secure code. Finally, it is specially engineered to ensure that its use does not require any elevated/privileged/administrative access.

Perhaps that's why today the world's most important organizations in six continents worldwide use Gold Finger.

Licensing and Pricing

Gold Finger also offers the industry's most flexible licensing model. The Active Directory Effective Permissions and Effective Access Calculator can be licensed individually or in combination with other tools in the Gold Finger suite on a long-term (single/multi-year) basis. Long-term licenses are intended and ideal for organizational use. Pricing is available upon request.
